A voice small enough to hold.

Worldling sounds like a thoughtful host welcoming you into a small, living universe.

Wonder in the invitation. Clarity in the action.

01

Make wonder feel close

Use details people can picture: a cloud, a moon, a light switching on. Let the world feel small enough to hold.

“Your world has a new moon.”

02

Be clear when it matters

Name what happened and give one useful next step. Keep errors, settings and account messages direct.

“We couldn’t save your changes. Try again.”

03

Invite at their pace

Offer something to make, explore or share. Leave room to come and go. Avoid guilt, streak pressure and invented urgency.

“Choose a landscape and make it your own.”

04

Celebrate care and connection

Notice a world taking shape or a kind message arriving. Let visits feel like company. Avoid ranking people or making popularity the reward.

“Your first comet has arrived.”

05

Use warm, everyday language

Write short sentences with natural English contractions and clear verbs. Keep the same warmth in French. Use familiar words and let the artwork carry much of the magic.

“Your world is here. Make yourself at home.”

| Discovery | Creation | Error | Celebration | Notification |
| --- | --- | --- | --- | --- |
| Curious | Encouraging | Direct | Warm | Useful |

Words that belong here.

Name the world, the gesture and the next action. Explain a comet as a kind message at first use.

| USE / ENGLISH + FRENCH | MEANING | AVOID |
|---|---|---|
| worldmonde | The personal place someone creates and tends. | realm, metaverse, digital asset |
| planetplanète | The round, visible 3D object. | orb, celestial body |
| cometcomète | A short, kind message left on a world. Explain this at first use. | ping, engagement drop |
| grow, bloomgrandir, s’épanouir; floraison | Gradual changes and new details. Use Bloom level / Niveau de floraison for the level label. | grind, dominate, rank up |
| visit, explorevisiter, explorer | Moving through the shared universe and entering worlds. | raid, invade, drive traffic |
| tendprendre soin de | Caring for a world over time. | farm, optimize your assets |
| people, friends, visitorspersonnes, amis, visiteurs | People in community copy. Use account for account settings. | users, audience, followers as a measure of worth |
| new, ready, arrivednouveau, prêt, arrivé | A specific, confirmed change. | epic, revolutionary, must-see |
| save, send, try againenregistrer, envoyer, réessayer | Plain action labels and recovery steps. | execute, transmission, invalid operation |

Use these preferences in product and community copy. Plain technical words still belong where they help someone, such as account settings.

Calm, clear and useful.

ENGLISH

Your world has a new moon

FRANÇAIS

Ton monde a une nouvelle lune

The event provides the reason to return. Do not add false urgency.

Avoid guilt, invented countdowns or claims that someone’s world misses them. Use event language only after the event occurs.

Ten other ways to invite someone.

Options for review. The original primary tagline remains the default; French lines are natural adaptations.

| | ENGLISH | FRENCH ADAPTATION |
|---|---|---|
| 01 | A little world. A lot of you. | Un petit monde qui te ressemble. |
| 02 | Small worlds. Shared wonder. | De petits mondes. Des découvertes à partager. |
| 03 | A little planet to call home. | Une petite planète où te sentir chez toi. |
| 04 | Your corner of the cosmos. | Ton coin de cosmos. |
| 05 | Let your world bloom. | Laisse ton monde s’épanouir. |
| 06 | Make yourself a world. | Crée-toi un monde. |
| 07 | A world shaped by you. | À toi de façonner ton monde. |
| 08 | Where small worlds bring us together. | De petits mondes pour se retrouver. |
| 09 | Space to make something yours. | Un espace pour créer à ta façon. |
| 10 | A world to tend. A universe to explore. | Un monde à faire grandir. Un univers à explorer. |

Keep the current primary tagline. It says what people do and what makes the experience personal. For a different direction, choose “A little world. A lot of you.” For community campaigns, use “Small worlds. Shared wonder.”

One voice, two languages.

Keep the warmth and clarity consistent. French uses a friendly tu, with simple, natural phrasing.

CURRENT ENGLISH

Grow a world of your own.

Visit everyone else's.

PROPOSED FRENCH

Fais grandir un monde à ton image.

Découvre les mondes des autres.

01 Use tu, ton and tes consistently in product and campaign copy. Use nous when the service needs to speak.

02 Keep Worldling unchanged. Translate comet as comète and explain its message meaning at first use.

03 Use floraison for the named growth system and Niveau de floraison for its level. Prefer grandir or s’épanouir in natural sentences.

04 Use infinitives for interface actions: Enregistrer, Explorer, Envoyer une comète. Campaign invitations can use the imperative.

05 Use mon monde for actions the owner takes and ton monde in copy addressing them. Use ce monde for a visited world.

06 Preserve accents, apostrophes and French punctuation spacing. Let longer French labels wrap or gain width.

07 Adapt the meaning naturally. Avoid regional slang, gender assumptions and word-for-word English structures.

Across both languages: short sentences, sentence-case UI labels, no em dashes, and no promises the product cannot keep.
